AI Autonomic Regulation System – Clinical System Map

This document describes a safety-constrained AI support system for hyperglycemia, hyperhidrosis, and autonomic dysregulation. The system detects patterns, supports behavior, and escalates to clinicians without diagnosing or treating.